

CRI on Fast 50 Track
Attributes recognition to its 490% Percent Revenue Growth

McLean, VA – October 14, 2006 – Communications Resource, Inc. (CRI) has been named to Deloitte's prestigious Technology Fast 50 Program for Virginia, a ranking of the 50 fastest growing technology companies in the area by Deloitte & Touche LLP, one of the nation's leading professional services organizations. Rankings are based on the percentage revenue growth over five years from 2000–2004.

CRI President Victoria Johnson credits strong client relationships and CRI's talented and hardworking staff with the company's 490% percent revenue growth from 2000–2004. She said, "We are delighted to have been recognized by the Fast 50 Program. Through continued dedication and an unwavering commitment to quality and service, we hope to experience further successes like this in the future."

"Deloitte's Virginia Technology Fast 50 companies have shown the strength, vision and temerity to succeed in today's very competitive technology environment," said Andrew Hars, Principal, Deloitte & Touche LLP in McLean, VA, and Southeast Region Telecommunications, Media and Technology Practice Leader. "We applaud the successes of CRI and acknowledge it as one of the very few to accomplish such a fast growth rate over the past five years."

The Virginia Technology Fast 50 program is hosted by Deloitte & Touche LLP, along with Wilmer, Cutler, Pickering, Hale and Dorr and media sponsors, PR Newswire and WTOP Radio Network.

To qualify for the Technology Fast 50, companies must have had operating revenues of at least $50,000 in 2000 and $1,000,000 in 2004, be headquartered in North America, and be a "technology company," defined as a company that owns proprietary technology that contributes to a significant portion of the company's operating revenues; or devotes a significant proportion of revenues to the research and development of technology. Using other companies' technology in a unique way does not qualify.

About CRI

Established in 1994, Communications Resource, Inc. (CRI) is a premier technology-management consulting firm serving federal, state, and local government customers nationwide. CRI is a certified 8(a) small-business, woman-owned firm with approximately 90 employees and corporate headquarters located in Tysons Corner, Virginia. Originally founded as a document management firm, CRI has since grown to provide a complete range of services and technical staff resources in support of the full security life cycle. CRI employees apply insight and understanding of requirements to solve complex technology, security, and business problems, generate project cost savings, and increase performance efficiencies.

Contact: Robert Gillette
703-245-4140
rgillette@cri-solutions.com