HispanicBusiness Names CRI on Top 500 List

McLean, VA – July 15, 2011 – Communications Resource, Inc. (CRI) has been honored by Hispanic Business magazine in its annual list of the top Hispanic-owned businesses in the U.S. New to this year's list, CRI was number nine in Fairfax County-based companies. The list encompasses the 500 largest Hispanic-owned businesses in the nation based on revenue, according to the June issue of Hispanic Business magazine.

CRI posted 2010 revenues of over $22 million. The annual list is an indicator of the health of Hispanic businesses because it takes a number of factors, including company revenue, number of employees and previous rankings into consideration. Since 1994, CRI has been a proven successful provider of systems and solutions on a variety of contracts supporting more than ten federal agencies. This listing comes on the heels of CRI's sixteenth anniversary and the US Department of Agriculture's Small Business of the Year award to CRI.

"This is an especially valued honor for us. During these challenging times, we have been able to continue our sales growth while maintaining our high level of quality performance. I again attribute this success to the remarkable performance of our people. Our performance is what counts in the customer's mind and we have developed an enviable track record which fuels the engine of our increasing sales." stated Victoria Johnson, CRI's Owner/CEO.
