

HispanicBusiness recognizes CRI as one the Top 500 Hispanic Businesses of 2012

McLean, VA – July 20, 2012 – CRI was named one of Hispanic Business Magazine's Top 500 Hispanic Businesses of 2012. The HispanicBusiness 500 list has served as a barometer of the U.S. Hispanic economy for more than two decades. The top 500 companies of 2012 produced combined revenues of $37.81 billion in 2011. CRI was also named one of the HispanicBusiness Magazine's Top 20 Hispanic-Owned Companies in Virginia for the third year in a row.

CRI posted a 2011 revenue of over $25 million. The annual list is an indicator of the health of Hispanic businesses because it includes a number of factors, such as company revenue, number of employees and previous rankings. Since 1994, CRI has been a proven successful provider of systems and solutions on a variety of contracts supporting more than ten federal agencies. This listing comes on the heels of CRI's 18th anniversary and the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Small Business of the Year award to CRI.

"We are honored to once again be recognized by HispanicBusiness for this esteemed award. Our employees have consistently raised the bar over the years and we are very proud to have attained our continued success during demanding economic times".
